CADETS ENCAMPED AT TOLCHESTER BEACH.—The Baltimore Sun of today says: "Company A, of the Cadet Corps of St. John's Academy, Alexandria, Va., accompanied by a detachment from company B, arrived in Baltimore yesterday morning at Calvert Station, and marched to Light street wharf, where they took the steamer Louise for Tolchester Beach, and went into camp for a week. They brought with them their tents and full camp equipment. Mr. Richard L. Carney, principal of the Academy, is in charge, with Captain Henry J. Nevitt as quartermaster. Company A is under the command of Capt. Wm. H. Sweeney, and Lieutenant Jos. L. Sanford, who is also acting quartermaster. The detachment of company B is commanded by Lieut. Orlando C. Ketchum, Jr. First Sergeant Edgar C. Helphelstein, of company A, is acting sergeant major. On their arrival at Tolchester beach, the cadets marched to their camping-ground, which is to the left of the hotel, where arms were stacked and orders given to erect tents. The camp was laid out in a square, with a main street forty feet wide, all the private tents facing. At the northern end are the officers' quarters. The parade ground is a short distance to the right of the camp. The officer of the day was First Sergeant E. C. Helphelstein. At 5:30 a dress parade was held, at which the excursionists were present. The precision with which the different maneuvers were executed elicited applause. The party numbered fifty, and has representatives from New York, Ohio, Nebraska, Maryland, the District of Columbia, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Louisiana. The representatives from Maryland are C. Arunah Rogers, of Frederick and John C. Hayden, of St. Mary's county. St. John's Academy is quite an old institution, having been established in 1833. Its present principal, who is one of the "alumni," has served in that position forty-one years. He carries the cadets of the school into camp every year, either on the coast or in the mountains, and camping time is always looked forward to by the students with great pleasure. The corps carried a handsome set of colors, which were presented to the school by the Frederick Academy of Visitation."

OFFICERS' BONDS.—Most of the officers elected last May have qualified before the Corporation Court and given their bonds as required by law. They being State officers their bonds are given to and approved by the Court, and not by the city council, as is the case with the city officers. The largest bond given is for Treasurer M. B. Harlow, and is for $90,000. His bondsmen are Mrs. Honoria Harlow and Messrs. J. Harlow, G. H. Harlow, J. C. McCracken, Thos. Hoy, Edward Quinn, J. P. Rice, Robert Porter and Henry Strauss. In addition to this bond he also gave one for $30,000 to the City Council, as, under the law, he also is the receiver and disbursing officer of the city moneys. His bondsmen to the city are Messrs. John Harlow, Geo. H. Harlow, M. Fannon and M. Lawler.

The City Sergeant, Capt. W. H. Smith, gives a bond for $15,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. His bondsmen are Messrs. Jas. McWilliams and A. W. Armstrong.

The Clerk of the Courts, Mr. J. S. Beach, gives two bonds, one to the Circuit and one to the Corporation Court, each for $3,000. His bondsmen are Messrs. H. Strauss and C. W. Howell on the former, and Messrs. M. Shuler and Wm. Murray on the latter.

The Commissioner of Revenue, Maj. Geo. Duffley, gives a bond for $3,000, and his bondsmen are Mr. H. Strauss.

The Commonwealth's Attorney, Mr. J. W. Holt, gives no bond, the law not requiring that he should.

Each of the Constables gives a bond for $2,000, but the magistrates are not required to bond.

In addition to the bonds given this week by the State officers, Mr. J. T. Hill, who was last week elected by the City Council Collector of Taxes for the Northern District, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. E. M. Adams, has just given a bond to the City Council for $5,000 as required by law. His bondsmen are Mrs. Elvira Hill and Messrs. J. M. Hill, Frank Hill, L. McKenzie, W. J. Hall, M. Shuler, E. Hughes and Sefer Blouse.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.—The finance committee last night finished settling with the Mayor his account with the city for licenses and fines. The account shows that during the year $7,241.11 were collected for licenses of which amount the late Mayor Smoot collected $1,063.67 from June 1st to December 10, 1887; acting Mayor Strauss collected $57.24 from December 10 to December 31, and Mayor Downham collected $3,093.20 from January 1st to May 31, 1888. In fines $2,142.45 were collected for the year. Of that amount the late Mayor Smoot collected $1,533.70; acting Mayor Strauss $113.50 and Mayor Downham $495.25 during the above mentioned periods.

The committee on light met last night and considered four bids which they had received for renewing the city gas works, the lowest of which is $25,000 and the highest $32,000. No definite action was taken in reference to the matter.

Up to date about 450 dog licenses have been issued by the Auditor. The owners of all unlicensed dogs will be reported to the Mayor on Monday.

The settlement being made by the Audit and finance committee with the accounts of the late E. M. Adams, collector of taxes, shows that that officer was one of the best collectors the city ever had, and that if he had lived he would have turned in more money than any of his predecessors for a long time past.

PERSONAL.—Messrs. J. S. Barbour and R. J. Daingerfield and Mrs. Miss Daingerfield have returned from St. Louis.

Dr. R. E. L. Johnston has returned from a visit to New York.

Mr. R. M. Fryer has returned from New York, where he went on business connected with his patents for building vessels.

At the closing exercises of the Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore yesterday the bachelor degree was conferred on W. F. and W. W. Willoughby, formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Merchant, of Dallas, Texas, are in the city on a visit to relatives, with whom Mrs. Merchant will remain during the summer. After a short business trip to New York Mr. Merchant will return to Texas.

DIED FROM THE OPERATION.—Mr. Lewis Trisler, who fell through a floor at his residence, near the canal basin, a week or two ago, and whose injuries were so serious as to necessitate the amputation of his leg yesterday by Drs. Ashby, Birdsell and Tebbis, died last night from the effects of the operation. The physicians in charge of the case resorted to every expedient calculated to strengthen their patient and enable him to survive the operation, but his age and decrepitude made the chances for his survival few. For two hours after the amputation Mr. Trisler's condition was good, and the attending physicians entertained a hope that he would survive the operation. Indications of approaching heart failure, however, became apparent later, and at about 5 o'clock his death followed. The physicians saw him for the first time five days after the accident occurred, and the leg was then in a horribly erysipelatous state, while the condition of the man was very low.

SUIT.—The case of Augustus I. Ambler, of Washington, against Rodney W. Whipple, a millionaire of Chicago, was taken up Tuesday in the Circuit Court of the latter city. The amount involved is $1,200,000. The claim is on the interests in vapor fuel patents and sales made of the same by the defendant throughout the country, over half of which, it was agreed, should go to the plaintiff. Ambler, it will be remembered, was interested in the vapor fuel "boom" started here by J. B. Archer in 1882, and which so ignominiously collapsed.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge Charles E. Stuart presiding.—Com. vs. J. W. Clarke; previous order of Court set aside. Citizens' National Bank, vs. J. H. Watkins et al., decrees for sale. Millie Jackson vs. Kitty Smith; report of commissioner confirmed. Court adjourned till Court in course.

BETHEL ACADEMY.—The closing exercises of Bethel Academy, Fauquier county, were held on Wednesday. In the battalion drill, the colors were assigned to Company B. At night there was a ball, which was well attended, among those present being Miss Jennie Tebbis and Miss Bessie Smoot of this city.

BARK.—Several carloads of bark arrived here this morning from the upper country for the bark mill which will be put in operation in a short time. The cars were run on the turnout on Royal street, in front of the mill, and which extend from the main track on Wilkes street, almost to Gibbon.

MASONIC.—At a stated communication of Alexandria Washington Lodge, No. 22, A. F. and A. M., held last night, the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: A. W. Armstrong, W. M.; W. Z. Zimmerman, S. W.; K. Kemper, J. W.; J. S. Douglas, secretary and J. A. Field, treasurer.

DEAD.—Elias Thompson, an old and respected colored citizen, died yesterday morning at his residence on south Columbus street, aged about eighty years. He was a cigar maker and had also been a baker, having worked at the latter trade for Mr. Peter Hewitt and also at the Jamieson bakery. His remains will be buried to-morrow evening at 3 o'clock from Roberts Chapel, of which he was one of the founders and earliest members.
